

Easy read version of What is Access in Dance?

What is Access in Dance?

- It is an online event
- It will look at Disability, Deafness and dance
- This webinar will go for 90 minutes
- You can leave at any time
- Three leaders who have a disability will talk about this topic

What are the key points?

There are three key points:

1. Ways Deaf people and people with Disabilities make art.
2. How that art can be made more easily?
3. How can the art be made more differently?

What is the event?

- This event will be a conversation between three performers.
- Their names are Caroline Bowditch, Liz Martin and Anna Seymour.

Easy read version of What is Access in Dance?

Caroline is a Disabled Choreographer.

Liz is a Disabled Musician.

Easy read version of What is Access in Dance?

Anna is a Deaf Dancer.

Another person,

Kate Maguire-Rosier will facilitate the conversation.

Kate is a researcher in dance.

Easy read version of What is Access in Dance?

Send your questions before the webinar to Kate!

Her email is projects@dance.net.au

This webinar will be captioned and AUSLAN interpreted.